DEFENDANT: ERIC DARNELL POWELL

CASE NUMBER: 2:21cr189-MHT

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance-abuse treatment as directed, which may include testing to determine whether he has reverted to the use of drugs. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of any treatment based on his ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments.
- 2. The defendant shall participate in a mental-health treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office as directed and contribute to the cost based on his ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments.
- 3. The defendant shall, within 21 days of the commencement of supervised release, undergo a psychiatric consultation, to be arranged by his supervising probation officer, so that he does not have a lapse in his medication regimen and receives any needed medication.
- 4. The defendant shall, within 45 days of the beginning of supervision, undergo a thorough psychological evaluation, to be arranged by his supervising probation officer, to diagnose any mental-health and substance-abuse disorders and make treatment recommendations for any identified disorders or other mental-health issues. The evaluation must be performed by a psychologist with expertise in the impact of adverse childhood experiences (ACEs) and trauma on adult behavior and mental health and with expertise in or familiarity with recent literature on effective treatments to address domestic violence. The evaluator shall examine, among other possible areas, the defendant's potential history of ACEs and trauma and shall attempt to determine the individualized reasons for the defendant's underlying history of violence. The evaluator shall recommend an individualized treatment plan including specific treatment modalities for or programs designed to address the defendant's history of violence and potential history of ACEs, trauma, and mental-health concerns. The evaluation shall be filed under seal within 60 days of the commencement of supervision. The defendant shall also receive psychotherapy at least twice per month unless contraindicated by the evaluation. This psychotherapy shall focus on healthy relationships and dealing with stressors without resorting to violence or crime and shall address any history of childhood or adult trauma as well as any other areas the psychotherapist finds appropriate.
- 5. The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, residence, office and vehicle pursuant to the search policy of this court.
- 6. The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact with Litrese Hulett. However, he may have contact with her regarding the minor children they share, as long as he first obtains the approval of the supervising probation officer. The defendant also shall have no direct or indirect contact with the children he shares with Ms. Hulett, unless he first obtains the approval of the supervising probation officer.
